

COAGULA # 20

These Images were provided to Coagula by Side Street Projects. They were to have been included in a show of visual art projected onto movie screens at L.A. area theaters during intermission. They were censored by corporate executives because of their potential for containing "subliminal messages." Judge for yourself.

